Faces Behind The Operation:

Mary Keehn and the “Groovers,” the nickname given to the devoted staff of Cypress Grove Cheese.

Facts:

Mary Keehn started raising goats for milk as a homesteader in Southern Humboldt in the 1970s. After time she had so many goats that she couldn't keep up with all of the milk, so she started making and selling cheese. She founded Cypress Grove Cheese in 1983, becoming one of the first goat cheese businesses in the United States. Today Cypress Grove is internationally known, especially for their award winning “Humboldt Fog.”
