

KNOW YOUR FARMER

KNOW YOUR FOOD

Amy and Fred at
Luna Farm

Jennifer and Michael at Willow Creek Farms

Luna Farm & Willow Creek Farms

Redcrest and Willow Creek, California

Faces Behind The Farms:

Frederic and Amy Diekmeyer and Michael and Jennifer Peterson.

Farm Facts:

Cherry tomatoes need warm temperatures to flower and fruit. They do best in a greenhouse on the coast, but inland farmers can grow them outside. Fred and Amy Diekmeyer of Luna Farm in Redcrest and Michael and Jennifer Peterson of Willow Creek Farms in Willow Creek grow multiple varieties of sweet, delicious cherry tomatoes that come in a rainbow of colors.

HUMBOLDT COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION
Nutrition Programs & Services

To learn more about Humboldt County farms and produce, visit vimeo.com/channels/hcoenutrition