Process for Attending Court Dates

- 1) You are ordered to attend every court date in the 6 months of your Diversion, unless:
 - a. Your student has 100% compliance with attendance as defined in the California Education Code, AND
 - b. You are excused by the Court Liaison, OR
 - c. Your student maintains perfect attendance for 30 straight school days, AND
 - d. Your case is dismissed.
- 2) 100% compliance with the California Education Code means your student attends school each day, every class, on time but allows for excused absences from school. Valid excuses for missing school are on the right. If your student's attendance is in compliance with these guidelines, you may be excused from Court by the Court Liaison.
- 3) Tardies, unexcused absences, and invalid excuses for absences count against 100% compliance and you will be expected to be in Court. Assume you are to be in Court unless you are told by the Liaison you do not have to attend.
- 4) Excessive excused absences that total 10% of the student's educational days are considered chronic truancy and are disallowed. In these cases, you will be asked to attend Court dates and work with the Court Liaison and school to resolve the issues.
- 5) Perfect attendance means no school is missed for any reason. This is only required if you want your case dismissed early.
- 6) You MUST contact the Court Liaison prior to EVERY court date to be excused, even if you believe your student has 100% attendance. 707-445-7098 or 707-362-9617
- 7) We want to focus on the positive. We will celebrate you and your student's success at the end of the school year.
