

Mail and Courier Services

The Office of Education may provide mail services in support of the Office of Education's official business. Courier services between the Office of Education and participating school districts may also be provided to support the educational and business operations of the Office of Education and school districts.

All mail and courier services shall be subject to Federal Postal Regulations, and materials sent or delivered through the Office of Education mail or courier system shall be subject to federal and state laws and board policy.

The Superintendent of Schools or designee shall develop regulations for the operation of the mail and courier systems.
