

Certificated Personnel

The policies and regulations in this series are established to inform certificated personnel of the framework within which they operate. The Superintendent intends that they be administered uniformly and fairly.

The Superintendent encourages the staff to participate cooperatively in the study and recommendation of policies to effect the highest standards of service through established channels.

The duties and responsibilities of Office of Education personnel shall be clearly defined and made known to each member of the certificated staff who shall be held accountable for those duties assigned to him/her, and shall undergo regular performance evaluations in accordance with law and negotiated agreements.
