Code of Ethics

Certificated staff members shall accept as guiding principles, and abide by, the Rules of Conduct as delineated in the Code of Regulations, Title V, Sections 80331-80338.

The Superintendent expects employees to maintain the highest ethical standards, to follow office policies and regulations, and to abide by state and national laws. Employee conduct should enhance the integrity of the office and the goals of the educational program.

The Superintendent encourages employees to accept as guiding principles the codes of ethics published by the professional associations to which they may belong.
