

MANAGEMENT. SUPERVISORY AND CONFIDENTIAL PERSONNEL

Code of Ethics

The Superintendent expects employees to maintain the highest code of ethics and encourages employees to refer to such codes as may be published by professional education associations to which they may belong. An employee's code of ethics must respect the policies and regulations of the Office of Education, state and national laws, and enhance the image and goals of the Office of Education's various educational programs.

Legal Reference:

EDUCATION CODE

- 1293 Certificated employees: contracts
- 1311 Employment of persons not requiring certification qualifications
- 44805 Enforcement of course of studies
- 44807 Duties concerning conduct of pupils
- 44932 Grounds for dismissal
- 44933 Unprofessional conduct
- 45302 Demotion and removal from permanent classified service
- 45303 Additional cases for suspension or dismissal
- 45304 Reasonable cause