

MANAGEMENT. SUPERVISORY AND CONFIDENTIAL PERSONNEL

Professional Organizations

The Superintendent believes that membership and involvement in appropriate professional organizations can improve the leadership ability and overall effectiveness of management employees. Therefore, it shall be the policy of the Office of Education to pay the Superintendent's and each management employee's annual membership dues in one designated and approved organization, subject to budgetary considerations. A list of all professional organizations in which dues may be paid shall be approved in advance by the Superintendent.
