

MANAGEMENT. SUPERVISORY AND CONFIDENTIAL PERSONNEL

Compensation

Compensation for services rendered in implementing the adopted policies, regulations, and programs of the Office of Education shall be appropriate to the experience, preparation, responsibility, and work year required of its management, supervisory and confidential employees.

All employees and the Superintendent shall be compensated in accordance with the salary and benefit schedules received and filed by the Board of Education in a public meeting of the Board.

Classified and certificated management and supervisory personnel are exempt from overtime provisions of law. Confidential employees shall accrue overtime and compensatory time off in the same manner as classified employees of the Office of Education.
