

Training the Staff

Staff training in building safety, exits, etc., prior to the occupancy of a particular building shall be a part of the in-service training program. The training shall be directed by the appropriate administrator.