In Memorium

The North Coast CMEA mourns the recent loss of these music educators and will remember their legacies:

Bill Allison, Janet Beckstead, Steve Lewis, and Kathé Lythe

The North Coast CMEA would like to express our gratitude to:

Arcata High & HSU Maintenance, Custodial Staffs, & Music Department – for their help in making our rehearsals and the performances possible. Without them, no school functions could occur.

Cassandra Moulton-Rizzo and Judi Scharnberg – for serving as site hosts, helping organize the Festival, and gathering all the equipment for the success of this event.

Judi Scharnberg—in gratitude for her countless hours of advice and mentorship on behalf of all Humboldt and Del Norte music teachers.

Robert “Skip” Wright— for on-site instrument repair.

Humboldt County Office of Education—for underwriting this event and providing the means for students to participate in regional and all-state honor ensembles.

Humboldt County Office of Education’s Erik Fraser—for his expertise, “yes” attitude, and livestreaming the performance.

To the following businesses for donating gift certificates for students:

Mantova’s Two Street Music—Owners, Anthony & Nick Mantova

Redwood Music Mart—Owner, Jay Byker

Wildwood Music—Owner, Errol Previde
