

REEF “Wild Things: Animals of the World” questions

Q: Samantha the lemur is diurnal. What does this mean?

Q: What local bird is the Australian kookaburra related to?

Q: What natural disaster in Australia recently impacted kookaburra populations?

Q: What adaptation does the weeper capuchin monkey have for grabbing and holding things that makes it similar to humans? How does this also make them different from humans?

Q: What adaptations does the Argus monitor lizard have that makes it a formidable predator?

Q: Why does the serval, an African wild cat, have large white spots on the backs of its ears?

Q: How did the Wild Things come to have and care for many of these wild animals?

Q: How can you help to protect wild animals?

Teachers, email Mel McGuire at melmcguire@yahoo.com for a document with the answers.